“Art For Ukraine” is a fundraising event hosted by the Cooperative Gallery 213 to support Ukraine during the recent war in their country. The artwork shown is presented by invited artists from Ukraine and our supporting and exhibiting members. Artists can choose to donate 50 or 100% of artwork sales to benefit Ukraine. Work should generally fit the theme of the show. The gallery will not take a commission from sales. The show will be open Friday, April 29th from 5-8pm and Saturday, April 30th from 11-6pm

- All members are invited to submit up to 2 pieces of their artwork. Work should be ready to be hung, shown in a rack, or put on a pedestal. Bring this form in with your work or fill it out in gallery.
- Work drop off time is Sunday, April 24, 2-5pm or Monday, April 25th, 4:30-6:30pm.
- Pick up of unsold work is on Saturday, April 30, 6-7pm or Sunday May 1st, 11-2pm
- Each piece must be labeled with a unique inventory number made up of the artist’s last name and a consecutive numeral (ex.: Smith-01) to match the work inventory list. Please describe your work below. All artworks must have two labels attached -- one to display, and one to stay on the work. (Ariel 14 pt. title, medium, name, price). If for sale mark donation percentage below (50% or 100%).

The Gallery is following all coronavirus safety guidelines. The Gallery takes all care and precautions possible regarding handling and protection of your art. Beyond that, the Gallery cannot be liable for damage or loss. Any work left in the Gallery becomes the property of the Gallery after 3 months.
